

New Triumph Hotels Collection Celebrates NYC History with Special Packages

You can't turn back time, but staying at Triumph Hotels will get you pretty close. The new boutique brand Triumph Hotels, which launched in February 2014, is made up of six distinct hotels that celebrate New York City history. Among the storied hotels are The Iroquois, once home to James Dean; the Hotel Belleclaire, a lively base during the Jazz Age; and the Beaux-Arts Hotel Chandler, which in 2013 opened an esteemed new farm-to-fork restaurant, Juni, helmed by chef Shaun Hergatt.

Iroquois hotel (Photo: Courtesy of the Iroquois)

To celebrate its launch, Triumph Hotels is offering a creative range of Key to New York City packages, through June 30, 2014. Book more than three nights at any of the six hotels and choose either a complimentary experience in one of the six neighborhood (a $100 value) or a one-way car service between the hotel and NYC's three area airports.

Each of the deals reflects the neighborhood you're staying in: The Hotel Belleclaire on the Upper West Side is offering a Picnic in Central Park basket filled with Zabar's sandwiches and snacks. The Washington Jefferson in the Theater District is handing out two tickets to the behind-the-scenes City Stage Door Tour at Radio City Music Hall, as well as a $50 voucher at the Italian restaurant Maria Pia. And the Cosmopolitan Hotel in TriBeCa is offering two 24-hour Citi Bike vouchers, a $20 gift certificate at Hugh Jackman's charitable Laughing Man Coffee & Tea and two tickets to a movie at Tribeca Cinemas.